World Marriage Day Anniversary Mass Celebration

On Saturday, June 2, 2018, Immaculate Conception and the Mission of the Sacred Heart will honor all couples at the 4 p.m. Mass who will celebrate their 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50, 55, 60, or more years of marriage. If you are celebrating one of these anniversaries this year, or last year in 2016, please call the Church Office at 665-5359, or go to our website: www.icc-msh.org.

Couples are asked to meet before Mass in the Main Hall. They will be honored by walking in procession and given reserved seating in church. A reception for the couples and their family members will follow in the Main Hall after Mass. A photographer will also be available to photograph each couple.

We would like to include your wedding picture in a booklet for all of the couples. If you bring the picture to the church office, we will scan it, and return it immediately. If you have a scanned copy, email it to gcrichard@icc-msh.org. Also, we would like to include in the booklet one thing you have learned about marriage, if you would like to share.

DEADLINE: Monday, May 21.

Consideration of our Christian Commitment: Easter Mercy

As we continue through this Easter Season we have the opportunity to reflect on so many wonderful aspects of our Easter Lives. Certainly one of the important aspects of that life is the Mercy of God. This Second Sunday of Easter is also known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

In the Gospel today, Jesus calls His disciples to share His mercy. The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. And, He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

A - Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.
B - Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.
C - Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive.

This Sunday is a good day to remember and give thanks for the mercy we have received – from God and from others, and to pray that we, in our own unique ways, can share that mercy as only we can.

CommUnity Hands held an orientation meeting the Saturday before Holy Week as they prepared to begin again with their ministry to the needy of our community. An ecumenical ministry which began in October, 2010, it became a wonderful ministry which was growing and growing until the 2016 flood. After the flood, because of so many pressing needs, of churches and volunteers who were preoccupied with other personal needs it temporarily ceased, but now has begun again. Happily five from our parish were among those preparing to serve in this ministry.

The Holy Oils that will be used for Baptism, Confirmation and Anointing of the Sick were blessed at the Mass of the Holy Chrism at the Cathedral Wednesday of Holy Week. Processing down the aisle, carrying the Holy Chrism which would be blessed by the Bishop and later distributed throughout the Diocese was Tori Landry who was Baptized and Confirmed with these oils at the Easter Vigil. Picking up the Holy Oils for the parish at the end of the Mass were Kevin and Heather Acord.

CHRISTIAN OLYMPIC, RUNNING FOR THE GOLD, is the theme for Summer Vacation Bible School this year.

Join us as we “Run for the Gold” on June 18-22, from 9:00 a.m. till 12:00 noon. Enjoy Bible stories, games, music, arts & crafts and snacks throughout the week. We will be welcoming students who will be entering K-5th grades in the fall. The fee is $15.00 per child. Registration forms can be found on the link on the parish website, www.icc-msh.org/formation. Registration is April 23-June 8, and registration deadline is June 8. No registrations will be taken at the door as materials will need to be ordered ahead of time.

As we continue through the Easter Season, may we live and grow as Easter People, a people of trust, hope and love. Let us keep one another in prayer. Love,

Adults/Children

It is impossible to contain the joy of our new Catholics, their godparents and sponsors, the RCIA team, and the parish clergy during and after the marvelous events they have experienced and witnessed at the Easter Vigil. The graces received from the Easter mysteries propel the new Catholics into the final period of catechesis, called “Mystagogia.” The fifty days between Easter and Pentecost are marked by weekly gatherings of our “new” Catholics or NEOPHYTES (newly enlightened), and through continued catechesis and full participation in our Sunday celebrations, they will come to experience the joy of fully being a part of the Christian community.

Stump the Deacon!

During the Easter Vigil, several adults were baptized. That was very beautiful because they sought baptism themselves. So, why do we baptize infants rather than letting them make their own decision later?

Baptism of infants has been a practice of the Church since its beginning. Jesus said "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

Every child is born with original sin. They did not bring this stain upon themselves, but we can remove it by baptizing them. This will open up the gates of heaven for them and help them begin their journey to that final reward. Without baptism, one cannot receive any of the other sacraments and receive the graces that come from them.

Baptism makes a child part of the Body of Christ. Should we exclude babies from the Body of Christ simply because they cannot choose if for themselves? Of course not! That would be like denying a sick child medicine because he cannot choose to take it himself.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#'s 1250-1251) declares:

The sheer gratuitousness of the grace of salvation is particularly manifested in infant Baptism. The church and the parents would deny a child the priceless grace of becoming a child of God were they not to confer Baptism shortly after birth. Christian parents will recognize that this practice also accords with their role as nurturers of the life that God has entrusted to them.
